

4.6. Employment Status of Initial Certification Completers

More specifically, these same completers from 2013-14, 2017-18 and 2018-19 are now employed in the field of education accordingly. One can readily observe a substantial increase in both Baltimore City and Charles County, and a decrease in Harford County during this 6-year span of time. Most other employers have remained relatively constant.
