- Act as a representative of the Office of Student Engagement and Community Programs.
- Host, attend and promote events to create a sense of community among new students.
- Represent NDMU positively to all new student and families during Fall Orientation.
- Promote interaction and facilitate group discussions on various topics to build rapport with students.
- Communicate effectively and keep students engaged in conversations/programs.
- Communicate with incoming students prior to and after programs.
- Work closely with other orientation leaders, the Director and Graduate Assistant.
- Attend and participate in training with fellow Orientation Leaders and other Student Leaders.
- Work alongside various departments and university representatives.
- Proactively provide customer service to guests throughout the program
- Assist in preparation of orientation activities and materials.
- Uphold and enforce all policies outlined in the University's Student Handbook.
- Develop and display a level of understanding regarding social justice, diversity and inclusion
- Any other duties as assigned.

ACADEMIC RESPONSIBILITY & GOOD STANDING: This agreement is contingent upon the Orientation Leader being a full-time and matriculated student at Notre Dame of Maryland University. It is also contingent upon the Orientation Leader earning and maintaining a minimum 2.5 GPA both cumulatively and every semester they serve as an Orientation Leader. Orientation Leaders must also remain in good standing per the student code of conduct as defined in the University's Student Handbook. In addition, Orientation Leaders are responsible for reading, understanding, and abiding by all policies, procedures, guidelines, and publications directed at all students. This includes but is not limited to Notre Dame of Maryland University's Student Handbook as well as the Residence Life Handbook.
